

Psychodrome

"Psychodrome" is the catalogue of a series of exhibitions of the same name. The objective of the works was to provoke mental disorientation in the observer in order to force him from passivity. In turn, physical disorientation was achieved by the labyrinth-like space which enhanced the overall effect of the psychostructure. This very colourful and inviting book presents the works of art within the context of the exhibition space. Drawings and photographs of the space accompany the beautiful images of the artwork.
